Leibniz Transactions on Embedded Systems

Article-Processing Charge

Title of contribution (named 'contribution' in the following): A Note on the Period Enforcer Algorithm for Self-Suspending Tasks
Authors: Jian-Jia Chen and Björn Bernhard Brandenburg

Corresponding author's name, address, affiliation and email

Name: Björn B. Brandenburg

Address: Paul-Ehrlich-Straße G 26, 67663 Kaiserslautern, Germany

Affiliation: Max Planck Institute for Software Systems (MPI-SWS)

E-Mail: bbb@mpi-sws.org

The publishers demand an Article-Processing Charge (APC) of 100 € (net). The author shall transfer the APC to the bank account of the publisher indicated on the invoice or via credit card. The obligations of the publisher under author agreement shall only be binding when the APC has been credited to the bank account of the publisher.

Invoice Address[3]:

VAT number[4]:

Kaiserslautern, 23.08.2016

Date, City   Signature of the corresponding author

---

[3]Invoice Address will be used to send the invoice of the APC. Fill only if it differs from the address of the corresponding author above.
[4]Quote VAT number if relevant: Customers in the EU should quote their VAT number. In this case the invoice will be exclusive of VAT (customers in the EU with no VAT number will receive an invoice including the German amount of VAT (19 %). Orders in non EU-member states do not need a VAT number and will be fulfilled at net price.